

HUDSON DISCUSSES FERGUSON BILL

Citizens' Meeting Held to Make Recommendations on Mineral Clause

At the citizens' meeting last week called by T. E. Bradley, the proposed Ferguson Bill was taken up, and a lively discussion ensued. A slight change in the clause on mineral ownership, it is said, will be asked. That there are minerals in certain parts of this section, is no longer a matter of question, and in trying to secure this additional property right, the farmers should move advisedly, protecting themselves against possible invasions, for which there would be, under the provisions of the present bill, no redress by law.

The local subscribers to the "News" agree that the finest thing the new management has done, is to get the paper here promptly at the week-end of which it is published. By so doing, our news is fresh and crisp instead of becoming ancient history before we receive it. It is a matter to be appreciated.

Mrs. G. E. Rice entertained her Sunday School class at her home on last Wednesday evening. The night was perfect and every member was present. Mrs. Rice is greatly beloved by the people of this locality, and was particularly charming in a gown of delicate blue.

Moisture in the local soil never was better. It is a matter of regret that no tester is owned in this community. A fine crop is anticipated, and many of our farmers are now beginning their listing, by way of putting the soil under proper cultivation.

Emil Grau and Henderson Bartlett spent the first half of the week on the Ulmer windmill, it being necessary to pull the entire three hundred feet of pipe with four sections of sucker-rod in the bottom of the well.

E. J. Payton, who took his flock of twelve hundred sheep to the Pecos Valley for winter pasturage, has sold them. Mrs. Peyton accompanied her husband and they have been spending the winter on the Pecos.

Miss Leona Bourland, who has been ill for some time, is not recovering as rapidly as had been hoped by her friends, but was able to ride out on Friday.

Thos. Carroll is shipping a car-load of bear-grass from here this week.

PROSPECTS AT NEWKIRK

E. M. Christian who was prospecting here last summer returned last week with some capitalists whom he had interested in the outlook here.

N. V. Gallegos of Tucumcari was here on business Saturday. He returned to Tucumcari Sunday.

There is quite a number our citizens shipping rabbits from this point to Kansas City.

A social dinner was given at the school house Wednesday evening of last week.

Misses Flossie Mamie and Florence Grove went to El Paso Sunday morning.

Charles Padia and Nerio Moya went to Cuervo and returned Monday.

Messrs. H. C. Wilkie and Budd called at Mr. Howards Saturday evening.

Mrs. H. H. Rusby returned to Tucumcari Thursday of last week.

Harry Grove visited at Los Tanos a few days last week.

E. F. Curry went to his ranch on Sunshine Mesa Monday.

Mr. Swain of Isidore went to Santa Rosa this week.

Miss Gra Bell of Ruth, who is staying at Cuervo attending in school there visited Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Curry Friday and Saturday of last week and returned to Cuervo Sunday.

Misses Laura and Alice Terry were here Monday.

I. V. Gallegos of Isidore is here this week.

Mr. Keeter was here last week. Ed. Davis was here Monday.

LOCALS FROM LOGAN

Misses Josephine and Velice Johnson returned from El Paso where they attended the wedding of their cousin.

Miss Marie Baer returned from Clayton where she has been spending the holidays. Saturday evening.

Mr. Fuentes of Buenovist came in Saturday returning Sunday with Misses Baer and Quarles.

Messrs Payne and McColline were in from their trapping camp Sunday and Monday.

Farroll Gallegos of Antelope Flat was in town Wednesday on business.

Mrs. Rose Breifton of Liberty Flat was in town Thursday and Friday.

Mrs. Juanita Gonzales has been on the sick list the past few days.

Charles Finley is at his parental home in Obar this week.

Miss Mary Quarles returned from Tucumcari Sunday.

Guy White was in Dalhart one day this week.

WEST LIKES DAIRYING

Mrs. Hunt is buying dairy cows and will go into the dairy business having been encouraged by the success of her son in this business. He has been successful selling cream.

West brothers are preparing to move their sheep to a new location further west in the valley.

John Fish has purchased a lot of pigs from Tom Mormon and will feed them on skimmed milk.

The prayer meeting at West is well attended and is doing much good.

Z. Todd went to Tucumcari last week to make final proof on his claim.

Farmers of West are preparing for a big crop this year.

Almond Brown is working on the plains.
